

Daryl Roxburgh

Daryl is Global Head of BITA Risk, the London based provider of risk profiling, portfolio construction and risk analysis tools for Private Client & Institutional investment managers. Daryl has over 25 years experience in the City, starting his career as a private client fund manager with Buckmaster & Moore and then progressing to a senior management role before being appointed General Manager Private clients and then Director of IT for what had become Credit Suisse Asset Management. Following two years at M&G, he was recruited by Prudential Portfolio Managers as Global Head of IT. Daryl joined BITA Risk in 2003. Over the last 7 years he has led consultancy and implementations of private client risk solutions across a number of major international banks and UK investment houses. In addition he is an Editorial Board Member of the Journal of Risk Management in Financial Institutions, co-author of Optimizing Optimisation and Collectible Investments published by Elsevier Finance, Founder Member of The London Quant Group, and a Committee Member of INQUIRE.